

Evan Gasman

Associate

Evan manages global cargo brokerage and works on sourcing partnerships across all business lines for the Axelrod team. Prior to joining, Evan was a Managing Director at AC Investment Management where he was a portfolio manager and head of commodity investments. Prior to AC, Evan spent ten years as a partner and senior trader at a $10 billion long/short statistical arbitrage hedge fund specializing in global equities, commodities and futures across a multi-sector portfolio known as A.R.T. Advisors, as spin-off from Caxton Associates. Evan developed strategies, risk management parameters, forecasts and algorithmic design to enhance the trading system. Prior to A.R.T. Evan was a proprietary trader within the Equities Division at Goldman, Sachs & Company and was a lead block trader for the internal risk book. Evan graduated from New York University with a degree in economics.